To be in the mountains together is not only to share an experience of natural beauty, it is also a way of meeting with others away from the usual rules of your daily life. Monterosa is perfect for active travels year around, offering the best skiing, biking and trekking environment you can imagine.

Above all, you will find the Italian tradition of good food and wines combined with the kindness of the local hotel owners.

We have long personal experience of the Monterosa area, and we will help you tailor the best travel for your group or your company, according to your wishes and your budget. We can offer this travel for a longer period. Tailor made travels to Courmayeur, La Thuile, Cervinia and Pila are also offered.

Please, call or e-mail us for a personalized offer.
